From My Heart To Yours

Dear Friends

Welcome to worship.

It's my practice to write a letter every week and publish it in this intimation brochure. The letter will come (I hope) rain or shine and whether I am at work or on leave, every time this brochure is put into your hands. It's a discipline I have and one I hope to keep. The letter is a love letter and it's sent from my heart to yours. The content will be varied, sometimes news of the church and the 'united' family; sometimes I will write about something that's on my heart – a social issue or a moral issue; sometimes I will share a quote or tell you about something I am reading; and sometimes it may be an introduction to the sermon.

The letter is intended to be an expression of my love for you and an encouragement for the week.

Before I close this first letter, allow me to express a deep sense of thankfulness to you for the warmth of your welcome, the kind invitations we have received, the tokens and written messages. It is a gift to be your minister and a privilege to serve a gracious God. Sascha, the girls and I feel excited about being here and we bask in the sunlight of God's love expressed in you. Thank you – in advance – for your attendance at the Induction service – this afternoon at 2:30pm. It means a lot to me that you come.

Lots of love

George
